

tui tai expeditions

We hope you'll join us for the trip of a lifetime, during which you'll visit remote beaches, snorkel over incredible reefs, kayak to local villages, and experience the most breathtaking locations across Northern Fiji. The Tui Tai Expeditions takes guests to places they never imagined, the natural beauty of Fiji, and the kindness and warmth of the Fijian people. Tui Tai Expeditions is the premier adventure experience in the South Pacific.

one of the world's only truly all-inclusive expeditions

When you're enjoying a luxury-adventure expedition on Tui Tai, you don't ever have to think about the details of extra charges because there aren't any. We've designed our service to be All-inclusive. Not "all inclusive" as some use the term, followed by a bunch of fine print explaining what isn't included. We mean that everything is included: every service, mixed drink, glass of wine or beer, every meal, all scuba diving (even dive courses), snorkeling, kayaking, spa treatments - everything. Once you board Tui Tai, the details are in our hands, and your only responsibility is to have the experience of a lifetime.

luxury that doesn't get in the way of adventure

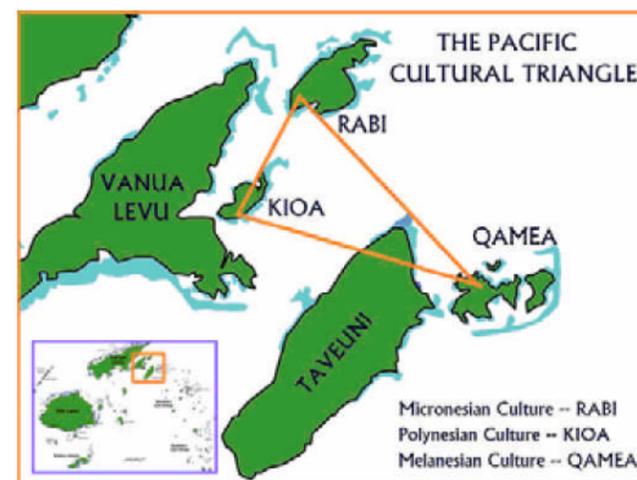

The word luxury can be defined in many ways. On Tui Tai, luxury means that everything has been made easy without being soft or pretentious. For example, while you'll have same-day laundry service onboard, your clothes won't come back wrapped in paper or tied with a frilly ribbon. We focus on the kinds of luxuries that matter: nightly turn-down service, air conditioning, the best shampoos and soaps, 800-count Egyptian Cotton Sateen sheets, superb exotic food, spa treatments, and the world's kindest and most thoughtful service. The result is that Tui Tai is a luxury resort that moves through the South Pacific, offering guests views that change all day.

adventure that doesn't get in the way of luxury

Like luxury, adventure can be defined many ways. To our guests it means spontaneity, having the flexibility and the resources to do and see amazing things, both above and beneath the surface. Even on the world's least trodden beach, or surrounded by the mist of a giant waterfall, you can still get a massage right there – because we set up spa services right there. You might be kayaking up a jungle river, but our support boat makes sure chilled beverages and snacks are waiting for you upstream. Whether snorkeling, scuba diving, kayaking, hiking, mountain biking, visiting remote villages, or just sailing the clear blue waters, all our activities have been equally enjoyed by a 26-year old tri-athlete and an active 74-year old world traveler – and everyone in between.

pacific cultural triangle

Tui Tai is the only luxury-adventure ship operating in the Pacific Cultural Triangle, providing guests a remarkable look at three distinct cultures that history and circumstance have put together within a nearby triangle of islands. In addition to visiting islands where indigenous Fijians live, Tui Tai sails to islands where Polynesians and Micronesians were relocated after World War II, and where the villagers live in their historically natural ways. Only the Pacific Cultural Triangle offers adventurers a chance to experience such strikingly different cultures and histories during a one-week visit.

rabi island

Micronesian people, originally from Banaba in equatorial Kiribati. Settled on Rabi Island in Fiji on December 10, 1947.

kioa island

Polynesian people, originally from Tuvalu in the Western margin of the Pacific. Settled on Kioa Island on October 12, 1948.

taveuni island

The native Fijian people of Taveuni island have a long and proud history here. It was this island that is celebrated for defeating the Tongan King "Ma'afu" and preserving Fiji's Melanesian culture.

underwater experiences for everyone

As part of your adventure experience you will get a chance to view the colors and beauty of Fiji's reefs and marine ecosystems. You don't have to be a certified scuba diver; we visit some of the best snorkeling sites in the world. Certified divers will love the world-renowned dive sites in Northern Fiji, featuring dives that combine crystal clear visibility, big fish encounters, colorful coral, exotic small critters and breathhtaking underwater topography. Tui Tai Expedition Cruises is a PADI IRRA International Dive Boat. Our instructors onboard can take you on a "Discover Scuba Dive" without any prior dive experience –and don't forget, it's all-inclusive, so why not try Scuba Diving? If you're already a certified diver, you can further your skills by completing the Advanced Open-water Course or a few Specialty Dives. Any charges that PADI charge for administration is not included but this charge is only small.

ecotourism and sustainable development

Tui Tai Adventure Cruises is operated with complete commitment to Ecotourism, fostering partnership and development with indigenous groups. Local villages share in the economic benefits provided by our operation. Tui Tai has fully funded new schools, purchased medical supplies and sponsored community development projects. By joining the adventure cruise, you are making a contribution to raise the standard of living in the more remote islands of Fiji.

An onboard marine biologist provides daily presentations on efforts to protect Fiji's reefs and marine environment. Presentations are designed to increase awareness by teaching about the various fish, corals and other marine organisms that may come under threat. It's a fun way to learn more about what you see on your snorkel and dive activities.

activities

featured activities

Many of which have been subject of major articles and cruise reviews.

We offer a wide variety of adventure activities and cultural interaction during the adventure cruise. Below is a summary of some of our favorite activities. Feel free to do as much or as little as you like during the trip – there are recommended activities each day, but we can supply guides and equipment for almost any adventure you'd like to do! If you would like to do an activity, let us know and we will arrange a guide and send you on your way.

scuba diving

Fiji is one of the world's most popular tropical dive destinations and much of this interest is due to the superb diving in the north around Taveuni, the Ringgold Atolls, Rabi and Kioa's acclaimed reefs. Here we find reefs ablaze with every colour of the rainbow, as multi-hued soft corals and fish feed in the tidal currents. Add to this clear, warm tropical waters and you have truly world-class diving. Tui Tai Expedition Cruises is a PADI IRRA International Dive Boat. Our instructors onboard can take you on a “Discover Scuba Dive” without any prior dive experience, or you can further your skills by completing the Advanced Openwater Course.

highlights

- Kokoda Point, crystal clear visibility and good spot for pelagics
- Somosomo Strait, enjoy the color of “Rainbow Reef”
- Rabi Island, pristine coral gardens
- Dolphin Bay, frequent dolphin encounters

snorkeling

Experience Fiji's best snorkeling sites throughout 5 distinct, pristine reef regions. The adventure cruise will take you snorkeling each day in a new region amongst Fiji's best snorkel areas. Snorkel in Natewa Bay, Vanua Levu, Taveuni, Kioa/Somosomo, Rainbow Reef, the Ringgold Atolls and Rabi Island, to truly experience what the color of Fiji's reefs. Holiday activities will not be limited to just scuba diving; you will get into Fiji's lush rainforests, paddle along rivers, visit traditional villages, swim in refreshing waterfalls, relax on deserted sandy beaches and more!

highlights

- The Farm, perhaps the greatest snorkel site in Fiji
- Dolphin Bay, frequent dolphin encounters
- Ringgold Lagoon, crystal clear visibility and good spot for pelagics

kayaking

Kayaking is one of the greatest ways to explore and discover the beauty of nature. From the seat of your kayak, you can explore a sunken volcanic crater in the Ringgold Atolls. Another day you'll explore a jungle river that takes you into the rainforest interior of an island. And on another day you'll follow the rugged Taveuni coast, counting waterfalls, and then paddle up a creek and into a series of 3 waterfalls.

highlights

- Cobia Island, kayak inside the sunken volcanic crater
- Buca River, river kayak and explore the rainforest island interior
- Lavena Coast, kayak from the sea to a creek and into a cascade of waterfalls
- Natewa Bay, sea kayak and enjoy the tranquility of the largest bay in the southern hemisphere

hiking & walking tours

Tui Tai activities include a range of hikes and walks. Some are very easy and others moderately strenuous. Every day there's a range of hikes: from walking tours of villages to challenges treks through the rainforest. From hiking up a tree-rooted staircase, to a leisurely stroll down an empty beach. Guides are always available and we encourage you to stay with them, they will point out many interesting things about the places you visit (medicinal plants, edible plants, historic sites, myths and legends).

highlights

- Bouma National Heritage Park, hike through the rainforest and swim in the Tavoro Waterfalls
- Cobia Island, hike to the summit of the atoll's volcanic crater
- Lavena Coastal Trek, experience this rugged, beautiful coastline. A mix of rainforest, beaches, waterfalls

mountain biking

Set your own pace on our bike rides. We pass along the coastline of some beautiful islands, and cycling is an excellent way to see the real Fiji. You will pass remote communities, attracting a friendly wave and the local greeting "Bula." Children will likely come to the road side to get a closer look at a rare and exotic sight (you). Remember, while traveling in Fiji you are exotic to the locals as they are to you, they find you equally charming and intriguing. Feel free to stop and chat, that's the Fiji way of things.

highlights

- Taveuni Biking to Bouma National Heritage Park
- Buca Bay Coastal Bike
- Rabi Island, Tabiang to Nuku
- Taveuni Island, Visit Wairiki Church and the International Date Line

village visits & culture

Instead of just walking through a village as a curious tourist, a Tui Tai Guest can get involved, establish relationships, provide important services, deliver supplies, teach about resource management, and share new resources. The Tui Tai is now seen by islanders as bringing assistance, support, encouragement, and new friends – not just tourists. Villagers welcome Tui Tai guests in ways tourists on conventional vacations could not reasonably expect: With love, gratitude, entertainment, music, positive anticipation, and deep friendship.

highlights

- Traditional yaqona ceremony and Fijian meke on Taveuni
- Polynesian dancing and singing on Kioa
- Micronesian dancing and singing on Rabi
- Opportunities to visit schools and bring humanitarian supplies

itinerary

“may your memories live up to your dreams!”

The adventure cruise itinerary is an evolving dream, a dream of the best activities, the best islands, the best dive and snorkel sites, and the greatest people we have ever come across. We use the word evolving because the itinerary seems to change on its own, and always for the better. Fiji and Nature and the nature of Fiji have all taught us to become comfortable with spontaneity, to welcome those spontaneous events and developments that have led to so much discovery.

Over the years, we’ve explored nearly all of the Fiji’s island regions; one remote island, we met a wise man who said: “May your memories live up to your dreams.” This pearl of wisdom became a source of inspiration for us and we fondly pass it along to you. In its ever-changing form, always open to the spontaneous, the adventure cruise itinerary exists so that your dreams can be converted into memories.

Vinaka and best regards!

sample itinerary

This is a sample itinerary because activities often arise spontaneously (a sudden invitation from a villager, dolphins or whales swimming by, the discovery of a new dive site, weather changes, etc), and because we don’t want anything carved in stone. Though we can’t know all you might experience during your expedition, here’s some of what often occurs:

instead of activities, we facilitate activism

Our guests have assisted on Humanitarian trips that brought doctors to remote islanders who hadn’t ever been treated by a doctor. Guests went along on the eight-island Humanitarian tour by Jazmin Grace Grimaldi, daughter of Monaco’s Prince Albert. That 2006 tour led to a new water collection system and storage tanks for a tiny village called Yanuca, classroom chairs and tables for a school in Rabi where students had been sitting on the floor, and 18,000 doses of pre-natal vitamins provided to a hospital that had none.

Other guests joined rock star Alanis Morissette on a humanitarian trip to islands damaged by a rare cyclone. Morissette’s trip brought emergency supplies such as food and drinking water; and also wheelchairs. The 2007 trip uplifted spirits by delivering Christmas toys for the kids, guitars and musical instruments for everyone.

Many people who have enjoyed success in business come to ask how they can give something back to the world. Tui Tai is grateful to be able to facilitate the experience of direct giving, while also helping people seeing the world’s most beautiful places, and most beautiful faces.

tui tai scholarships

Adopt/Sponsor one of the bright minds from the islands you have visited. Depending on age/ year in school, a donation of $300-$1000 Fijian Dollars can pay for an entire year of school for a student. You can choose to make a "Tui Tai Scholarship" by reviewing the applications that have been submitted by students; or you can visit the school and interview students yourself. The scholarship beneficiary will keep in touch with you via email (with help from Tui Tai's office) to let you know how they're doing in school, favorite subjects, sports.

Many of the best students fail to reach higher education due to a lack of school fees and other financial conditions that prevent them from reaching their potential. Your sponsorship will directly enable an aspiring student to reach for his/her dreams. And you will have a relationship that lasts far beyond the length of your trip.

medical supplies distribution, education and assessment

Villages in remote islands are fortunate if they have any basic medical supplies. On many occasions we have found people suffering from pain and conditions that are cured by simple over the counter medicines. In addition to distributing medical supplies, you will spend time with nurses and other members of the village medical clinic to help them understand how to use medicines.

school supplies distribution and education assessment

Remote Island schools are constantly in need of school supplies. Visit a school in session and distribute school supplies. Speak to the teachers and complete an assessment of the school. Educational assessments help us determine future humanitarian needs, an important part of making real improvements to village schools.

family expedition special

Note that our minimum age for regularly scheduled expeditions is 14 years old. However, throughout the year we have scheduled "Family Friendly" cruises where the minimum age is lowered to 8 years old. As a courtesy to our adult guests, family cruises are scheduled in advance so all of our guests are aware, prior to booking, if a date may have any children under age 14.

- Family of Four: 3 Pay, 4th Pays Half-Price
