TOAMANA'S DISCOVERY EASTERN TOUR / LAKEPA VILLAGE EXPERIENCE

Toamana's tour of the eastern side of the island includes a tour of the village of Lakepa. The tour departs from the Information Centre in Alofi at 8:00am and Matavai Resort at 8:15am and travels south through the villages of Avatele, Vaiea, Hakupu, Liku and Lakepa. The tour stops at Togo. A walk through the coastal forest brings you to the coast line, a jagged terrain of sharp pinnacles with a well formed path to Togo itself. A fairly steep climb down a solid wooden ladder and you've made it to Togo, a sandy cove gouged from solid rock with tall coconut trees at one end. Back on the perimeter road the tour runs through Huvalu Forest, said to be one of the largest rain forests of any raised coral atoll. At Lakepa, you will be hosted by Mary and Kupa for an hour or so as they show you a little of their village, including their restored primary school as well as the skills of husking a drinking coconut. You will be given an opportunity to taste some typical local snacks of coconut and pawpaw and whatever else is in season. Throughout the tour your local Niuean guide will provide you with information on island life ranging from its history, to the people, the language and culture. The return journey will be through the middle of the island and back to the main village and Matavai. Allow 4 hours for the duration. Requires minimum of 8 pax.

KEY ATTRACTIONS

AVAIKI (moderate)

A historical place in Niue as this was where the first canoe landed. It is advisable to visit Avaiki during a low tide as there is an amazing swimming cave to the north of the main cave and perfect for a sunset swim.

Hio (moderate)

Located just on the outskirts of Tuapa village heading north is a small secluded sandy cove. At low tide a cave to the north of the cove can be accessed. It was here that the Peruvian 'black birder' Irole wrecked in 1877, locals took possession of the liquor that was salvaged from the wreck and poured it into the sea despite the protests of the Captain

Palaha (moderate)

Located south of Tuapa village, along the North West coast of the island, Palaha is notable for its limestone formations in varying shades of green and red. The reef flat is accessible at low tide, with small pools to snorkel in. The rock formations can get quite slippery so do navigate them with caution.

Matapa Chasm (easy)

Noted for its expansive cliff face and historical importance as a reserved bathing place for Niue's traditional kings, Matapa Chasm is reached by a track which branches off from the main road at the foot of Hikutavake Hill and beside the start of the trek to Talava Arches. Matapa Chasm provides a sheltered snorkeling, swimming place for all.

Limu (easy)

One of the most beautiful swimming and snorkeling areas on the northern coast of the island, the crystal clear waters of Limu hold a wide variety of fish life and caves to explore. The mixture of salt and fresh water flowing out from the island provides a refreshing and unique snorkeling experience. The track to Limu is clearly marked at the northern end of Namukulu Village and has wonderful picnic areas available. A visit to Limu is a must for all visitors to the island.

Talava Arches (moderate to hard)

Branching off to the right of the access track to Matapa Chasm is a clearly marked trek to Talava Arches. Traditionally used as a lookout point to keep watch for impending raids or foreign vessels, Talava is now home to one of Niue's unique land marks – the Arches.

Uluvehi (easy)

1846 hailed the arrival of Christianity to the island through Peniamina. In 1863 Peruvian Slave traders arrived at Uluvehi and carried away 109 young Niuean men in 3 ships to work in the guano mines of Chile. Today, Uluvehi offers a great view of the ocean and with a coconut stop at the start of the road it's a great way to refresh yourself before continuing on with your journey.

Peniamina's Grave (easy)

Located in a small clearing on the left hand side of the road 5km north of Alofi is the burial site of Peniamina, the first Niuean to bring Christianity to the island. In his honour Niue also observes an annual public holiday in October.

Togo (moderate to hard)

Everyone should make at least one trip to Togo which is reached by a track starting about 4km north of Hakupu. After leaving the bush the track descends through a mass of jagged coral pinnacles to a grassy flat, where a passage leads off to the edge of a chasm. At the foot of the chasm there is a beach of fine golden sand from which some coconut trees rise, almost reaching to the rim of the chasm.

Opaahi (easy)

This was the site Captain Cook's second landing attempts in June 1774. Cook's landing party was challenged by the locals, who retreated after several volleys were fired, and the landing party returned to the ship.

Anapala (moderate)

Descending 155 steps into a well known chasm and pool of fresh water situated near the track leading from the village of Hakupu to the sea, Anapala was a main source of fresh water for residents of the surrounding village.

Tomb Point (easy)

An easy walk next to church in Alofi, opposite the main shopping centre and with a lookout and 180 degree views of the Alofi bay. There are picnic areas nearby and two of Niue's former kings are buried within the grounds of the church.

Hikutavake Pools (easy)

Located in the village of Hikutavake, towards the sea side at the open field. Best to head down at low tide. Great spot for snorkelling and walking along the reef.

Amanau (easy)

Located in the village of Alofi South. A great little picnic open grassy area at the top and a small snorkelling pool at the bottom. Best to go at low tide.

Tautu (easy)

Located in the village of Liku. A beautiful spot to watch the sun set. Also an amazing spot to have lunch under the cool shade of the trees just above the cave. A definite MUST SEE attraction.

Tamakautoga Sea Track (easy)

A quite secluded beach. A great place to take the family for a swim and also a great spot for a picnic. Low tide is best to visit this site.

Hikulagi Sculpture Park (easy)

Add to the Hikulagi sculpture park. Located in the village Liku, check out the different forms and takes on art.

Anaana Lookout (easy)

A great spot to have a picnic or an outdoor BBQ. Also the perfect location to view the Humpback whales when in season.
