Moorea Lagoon Resort & Spa

Ah, Moorea... the ultimate enchantress, mysterious little sister to the main island of Tahiti in French Polynesia. Heart-shaped Moorea is also called the "Island of Love" and is said to be the inspiration for James Michener's mythical Bali Hai and the backdrop for the paintings of French impressionist, Paul Gauguin. Situated just 17 kilometres across the Sea of Moons from Papeete, this pretty sibling is a verdant green paradise. What better place to experience the dramatic splendour of this South Seas fantasy island than from an overwater, beach or garden bungalow at this romantic resort, opened in 2000. The Hilton Moorea Lagoon Resort & Spa, is set amidst abundant tropical gardens and rimmed by a white sandy beach and a brilliant ten-acre lagoon teeming with friendly tropical fish, a gentle water playground for our guests.

The Hilton Moorea Lagoon Resort & Spa features 106 bungalows nestled among flower gardens or suspended above a transparent lagoon.
